

Family Place January Newsletter

Hello Family Place Families and Caregivers,

We wish you and yours a very Happy New Year and welcome you back to our Family Place program. We thank you for your faithful support to us in 2020. We look forward to this new year with hope. We believe together as educators and parents we will once again offer our children more opportunities to grow, learn and play.

We have enjoyed seeing many of you participate in our online and in-person activities through COVID. We thank you for supporting us through these uncertain times and through many learning curves that we the staff had to adapt to.

As we begin this new year, we have a few important changes to share. Do take a moment to read through.

Friendly reminders:

- ❖ Family Place will NOW be open from Monday to Thursday.
- ❖ There will be no planned activities on Friday's.
- ❖ All activities for January will be offered via zoom only.
