

Langley Community Services Society (LCSS)

Board Member Applications

Do you want to use generative thinking, strategic planning and have influence within a multi-service, community based agency whose vision is Enriching Lives for the local community.

The LCSS mission is to empower and inspire individuals and families to enhance their lives and build an inclusive, healthy community. Our core values guide our relationships with clients, funders, community partners, staff and volunteers.

As a volunteer board member you would have an opportunity to actively participate in defining the health and well-being of our community. As a member of the governing body you will get to meet and work with an amazing group of board and community members along with our diverse and highly rated staff.

You will be provided with mentorship from an experienced board member and enjoy being part of an organization that helps tens of thousands within the entire Langley area.

Ideal Board Members

We look for individuals with diverse skills and experience to help reflect the community we serve.

We already employ a diverse ethnic staff and take into consideration diversity (ethnicity, Indigenous, gender, faith, etc.) as well as experience in certain speciality areas like finance, law, health, non-profit knowledge, etc. Currently over 25 different languages are spoken at LCSS.

Interested applicants must align with the LCSS mission, values and vision for the community.

Board members must abide by our Conflict of Interest policy and must not be a current LCSS employee or a close relative of an employee, under contract to the society, or have a financial interest as a vendor.

Commitment Required

Please submit a resume and a cover letter detailing why you are interested in being an LCSS Member and your qualifications. Please email the document to: hr@lcss.ca

Shortlisted candidates will be contacted for an interview and then final candidates will be elected by the society members at the Annual General Meeting.

Thank you for your interest in being a board member. We look forward to hearing from you.
